

Churt Yuletide Bazaar

Sadly the Churt Yuletide Bazaar has had to move online this year.

The website has now launched with all our brilliant makers and the key message this year is to shop local and support small businesses.

The website is www.churtyuletidebazaar.co.uk

This will be running up to Christmas and after, with a special Instagram event with the makers this Saturday.

We do hope people pop along and visit the site to see all the wonderful things for sale!!
